

System component

An element of a System which (along with other components) constitutes the System and:

- explicitly differentiated from other constituting System components
- explicitly described its interrelation or interaction with other components and external influence

See also

System