

Business Administration

@wikipedia

A set of procedures of managing the Business in the interest of Shareholders (commercial or non-commercial) which includes managing the Companies (Employees and Assets) and interaction with local Regulators.

Business Administration includes the following management divisions:

Corporate Management	Financial Management	Marketing & Sales Management	Operations Management	Technology Management	ICT Management
--------------------------------------	--------------------------------------	--	---------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	--------------------------------

The key elements of the Business Administration is Accounting (Financial Accounting and Management Accounting) and planning.

A quick look into a Business position and future perspectives is provided by Business Summary.

See also

Organization

[Company]

[Office Operations] [Field Operations]

[Headquarters \(HQ\)] [Corporate Office]

[Accounting] [Business Summary]