

Phase volume fraction = s

Relative volume occupied by Phase with respect to gross volume of Multi-phase fluid sample:

$$(1) \quad s_\alpha = \frac{V_\alpha}{V}$$

where

V_α	volume occupied by α -phase
$V = \sum_\alpha V_\alpha$	total volume of Multiphase Fluid sample which is a sum of all phase volumes

See also

Natural Science / Physics / Thermodynamics / Thermodynamic system / Phase / Multi-phase fluid

[Multiphase Fluid vs Fluid Mixture]